UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA DEVONIAN BOTANIC GARDEN OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The University of Alberta Devonian Botanic Garden will be open to the public from May to September from 1 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, Sunday, and holidays. In June, July, and August, the garden will be open from 4 to 9:30 p.m. during the week. It can be reached by travelling six miles west on Highway 16, then 9 miles south on Highway 6.

A $375,000 grant from the Devonian Foundation, which resulted from the efforts of the Friends of the Botanic Garden, has been matched by a grant by the Department of Advanced Education and Manpower. Now that the grant has become available, expansion and refinement of the garden will be possible.

Part of the grant will go toward restoring a portion of the garden which was destroyed by flood damage two years ago. As well, the Alpine garden (which includes plants from all the alpine areas of the world) will be finished and a new garden of all the plants of the province will be started. The herb garden, including plants used in culinary, drugs, economics, and dyeing, will be completed, and a garden of plants used by native people, labelled in Cree and English, is proposed. There is provision for a headquarters and activities building and a service greenhouse, and physical expansion of the garden is hoped for.

PEOPLE

■ George D. Molnar, Professor and Chairman, Department of Medicine, was invited to a Conference on methodology and clinical application of continuous in vivo glucose analysis in Freiburg, Germany, from March 26 to 28. Dr. Molnar spoke on "Diurnal glucose variability and hormonal regulation." He also lectured and visited Departments of Medicine and Diabetes Research Institutes at the Universities of Ulm and Munich in Germany and Geneva, Switzerland.

■ S. Masamune, Professor of Chemistry, presented the 1976 Purves Lecture at the Department of Chemistry, McGill University, on April 1 and 2. He discussed the total synthesis of macrolide antibiotics as well as several topics concerning small ring organic molecules.

■ L.C. Green, University Professor, attended the Twenty-ninth Annual World Affairs Conference at the University of Colorado, Boulder, and was a member of nine separate panels.

■ Karol Krotki, Professor of Sociology, was rapporteur of one of the five workshops at a Joint Statistics Symposium 1976 in Ottawa and organized by the Social Sciences Research Council of Canada and Statistics Canada. This was a large conference attended by representatives from all social sciences, and, out of the five workshop rapporteurs, four demographers were chosen.

Dr. Krotki also attended a small conference at the Economic Council of Canada on the role of underdeveloped countries in the future of Canada. This conference followed a recent publication of the Economic Council, Looking Outward.

■ Harry Wohlfarth, Associate Professor, Faculty of Extension, received praise from the German press regarding his one-man show in Zurich, Switzerland. The show is the first of three the artist will have in Europe this year.

R.L. Watts, Principal, and M.A. Gill, Director of Alumni Affairs, on Tuesday, April 27, at 8 p.m., at the Edmonton Petroleum Club. All Queen's alumni, their spouses, and escorts are invited to attend. The admission charge of $3.75 includes light refreshments. Further details may be obtained by phoning C.V. Davies at 434-1690.

HISTORICAL TRAIL EXPEDITION

Plans to promote a horse and canoe expedition to re-trace the Old Peace Trail from Grouard to Athabasca are now underway. The riders and canoeists will leave Grouard on July 4. The canoeists will follow the Slave River and Athabasca River to Athabasca. The riders will follow the Old Peace Trail along the north shore of Lesser Slave Lake to Slave Lake, and then they will take the Old Drift Wood Trail to Fawcett, and from there they will travel on to Athabasca.

The purpose of the expedition is to publicize the historic trails as natural resources for hiking, horseback riding, canoeing, and other activities. Horse and canoe enthusiasts from all over Alberta are expected to participate. Further information can be obtained from Garry L. Johnson, Secretary Manager, Midnight Twilight Tourist Association, No. 304, 10012 Jasper Avenue, Edmonton; telephone 429-2376.

POOL HOURS

Beginning on May 1, the recreation swimming schedule hours will change. On Saturdays and Sundays, hours of operation will be from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

ADMINISTRATIVE AND INTERPERSONAL SKILLS FOR WOMEN IN MANAGEMENT

This is a three-day workshop to be held May 10, 11, and 12 and is sponsored by the Faculty of Extension for the career woman. The objectives of the program are to help career women increase their self-confidence in dealing with colleagues and superiors and work pressures; obtain greater flexibility and competence in changing work situations; learn how self-images affect confidence and effectiveness; understand what limitations individuals put on their own potential; and make the changes they consider desirable.

Gisele Richardson, the workshop leader, has been active in executive development for many years and is one of the pioneers in the application of Transactional Analysis techniques to management contexts. The concepts presented during the workshop will relate to feelings and attitudes, to interaction and to motivation. In addition to looking at individual behavior and attitudes, the program will also examine the cultural myths about women, especially those that individual participants have accepted and which stand in the way of self-confidence.

Registrations are accepted in 228 Corbett Hall. The fee is $160 including luncheons. Additional information can be obtained by calling 432-5066 or 432-5067.

RADIATION SAFETY COURSES

The Radiation Control Committee is planning to hold another series of Radiation Safety Courses for individuals using, or planning to use, radioactive materials at the University of Alberta.

These courses are designed to give individuals, primarily at the technician level, some basic training in the safe use of radioactive materials in the laboratory. However, graduate students, faculty and other interested individuals are welcome.

The next course is scheduled to begin on May 3. Enrolment in the course is restricted to fifteen persons. Individuals interested in attending a course can obtain registration forms from the Radiation Control Office by telephoning 432-5655. There will be a fee of $1 per course participant to cover the cost of training manuals.

MOTIVATION AND PRODUCTIVITY AND THE EFFECTIVE EXECUTIVE

Two programs using management films have been scheduled by the Faculty of Extension. Motivation and Productivity will be held May 3 and will utilize three Saul Gellerman films. This program has been designed to introduce managers to selected research findings of behavioral science and to indicate how management principles and techniques based on this research can be applied to increase productivity and profits. The second program is entitled The Effective Executive and will be held May 17. In this program, four of Peter Drucker's films will be shown.

Registrations for both seminars will be in 228 Corbett Hall. The fee has been assessed at $60 for both programs and $35 for one only. Obtain additional information on these programs by calling 432-5066 or 432-5067.

MANAGEMENT OF DISCONTINUITY

Charles A. Lee, Professor of Business Administration and Commerce, will conduct this two-day seminar for the Faculty of Extension May 6 and 7.

The seminar will combine lectures, films, and round table discussions in an effort to assist managers in all kinds of organizations—business, industry, government, education, and volunteer agencies—to look at the problems of today and tomorrow in a realistic, innovative, and futuristic manner. The seminar will be of special interest to corporate and organizational senior executives who are responsible for long-range planning and other executive groups embarking on a management by objectives program or forming a project team.

Registrations for this seminar are accepted in 228 Corbett Hall. The fee is $95 including luncheons, textbook, and materials. Obtain additional information by calling 432-5066 or 432-5067.

PLANNING FOR RETIREMENT SEMINAR

Personnel Services and Staff Relations in conjunction with the University of Alberta Hospital is planning a seminar for employees who will be retiring in the near future. The seminar will be held in the Interns' Residence (85 Avenue and 114 Street) on April 23 (evening), 24 and 25 (daytime), 1976. Pre-registration is required, and invitations have been sent to all full time non-academic staff who will reach retirement age by 1979. For further information please contact S. Dean at 432-5204.

VOLUNTARY RESOURCES SEMINAR IN BANFF

There is a critical shortage of voluntary help available to cultural organizations in Canada. Volunteers are essential to keep these agencies functioning. In this regard, a seminar. Management of Voluntary Resources, will be held by the Cultural Resources Management Program at The Banff Centre, April 12 to 16, to define the problems and teach proven methods of utilizing this important supply of manpower.

Topics will include identification and recruitment, training and orientation, public and official recognition. Instructors including Alex Macdonald, Bureau of Public Affairs, Province of Alberta; Peter Swann, Executive Director, The Bronfman Foundation, Montreal; and Sharon Proctor of the Vancouver Public Aquarium will consider the problems of museums, symphony orchestras, zoos, art galleries, and performing arts companies of all sizes.

For information about course content and registration details contact Wendy Bradley, co-ordinator, Cultural Resources Management Program, Banff Centre, Banff, Alberta.
